

This house? Well, my father was building one first time and then when he have a big family, he built on the other part.

(And what was your father's name?)

Charlie Smith.

(Yeah. I remember Charlie Smith.)

ENJOYED THE EARLY DAY VISITING AND LOTS OF COMPANY

NOT CLEAR THIS HOUSE. You know they visit. Visit around.

(Had lots visitors. Lots of company. And they had good times.)

Oh Yes.

(Some sing?)

And talking, laughing, and sing sometimes and they ride in wagon.

(What did they have for dinner in those days? What did they eat?)

Well they have just everything. Pies, hogs—pork meat long time ago. But this time you can't keep hogs.

Jack: —dried apple pies and molasses cake.

(Molasses cake.)

Un Hunnh.

(Is—?)
