

Third Voice: Yeah player there.

Mr. Tindall: Best player they ever had there was Adair Mayes. Yeah he was in this picture I had. Yeah.

Third Voice: That was the best player I ever seen. He was fast and he was tough. I think he only weighed 158 pounds when he played ball there. But he was really tough and he was fast.

(They called signals in Cherokee too, didn't they?)

Yes. Well they didn't have such things as huddle system then you know.

Third Voice: They had silent signals one year there.

Mr. Tindall: Yeah. You know that old signal system was kinda complicated.

Now they just get in that huddle and talk it over. (next sentence not clear.)

Yeah. Notre Dame had a real good team. Didn't have a big stadium there you know. Bleachers around. Played on big ball field. It was all marked off and everything. That was when we beat Notre Dame 22 to 0. Then that John Aldridge you know. I never have seen anywhere if anybody ever beat his record but he punted 90 yards. Oh, he was a big one.

Third Voice: There was two of those (not clear)

Mr. Tindall: Yeah. That was after I left there. They were just boys when I was there.

(What year did you go?)

I was 'bout 12, 13, 14, 15, somewhere 'bout there.

NEARLY ALL CHILDREN IN THE OAK RIDGE SCHOOL ARE COUSINS

(This is the Oak Ridge community isn't it?)

Yes.

(Have many people do you have living in this community?)

By George, I don't know.

Voice in background: About 10 families.

(How many Indians families do you have here? All Indians but one. Well.)

Mr. Tindall: We got one little white boy going to school out here. Rest of
