

and now they going to get started. So we walk together and I was trying to hide behind them other two. Kept going and we got to the crowd and everybody just looked at us. Sitting on them benches. I stopped. I won't go. And this girl said, "Come on." They make us come on right in the front, and they gave us a place to sit and I didn't know what to think. At that church while all that preaching was going on, I just sit there. After it was over my aunt said, "You all come on. We going to have dinner over there." Them other folks took us to church again that night. And I went back to my aunts camp and my mother came after me so I went to that camp. And that next day they moved camp--Monday. They all moved. I just like a dream, see, we all come home. Forgot all about it. My mother told me, "You going to get married. You ain't going to go back to Haskell." Been to Haskell, see, and here my brother Charlie, my oldest brother was going to take me into Haskell, that fall. And I'm sure sorry I didn't go. Old folks made me got married. And we got home and my cousin from Anadarko and my aunt came down here from Anadarko. Miss Coco, Emma Coco, they come down here. And me and my sister, we been down there swimming. And we got to the house and we was hot and sweating and after we been swimming we usually get sleepy you know, and we went in the house and laid down and went to sleep. Took a nap. And they was sitting out there in the arbor. Got a big arbor. And my aunt was talking and they was sitting out there. Then we see two buggies coming, one single buggy, and one in the black buggy. And wonder who they are. They saw them coming the north, and they come in and wake us up. All the people are around and they drove in. "I wonder who they are?" They got off and there was lot of boys. And there he had five brothers. Ray, and Pratt, and Bill and Davie and all of them there. He had five brothers he was the oldest. He was riding with his brother on a single buggy. They was coming after me. And his folks was
