

Try them for their wickedness. Then come up before me. (Cherokee)

The wickedness of the people of Ninevah was broadcasted to God. In other words God sees and He felt the wickedness of this great city.

(Cherokee words) They came to the seaport, Ninevah there to go on board a ship. The boat is to be on it's way to Ninevah (Cherokee) and these days, blessed days, if we had to walk one mile to church we wouldn't go. I know of a church right here in Tulsa I knew some of the people that lived just around the block if they could not get someone to come for them they'd stay home. But some Monday morning they, may be they go walking down town, fifteen blocks. Jonah walked every step of the way but he made it. There he made the--(Cherokee)

Jonah knew that there was something right here that was needed then and to the present day, love for God. Jonah ran for God. God knew all what Jonah was doing. (Cherokee sentence) God knew everything about Jonah that ran through his mind and the way that Jonah was heading God knew all about it, just like he knows all about you tonight. He knows exactly what you're thinking right now. The Lord is one of the greatest that the world has ever known. He's really divine. He knows what it is all about. He knows what's running through your mind, not just today but what you're thinking tomorrow.

(Sentence not clear) In the meantime, just to make the story short,

God the Creator of all brought the whale, a fish. (sentence not clear)-- even when you get home you forget. Brother Sam says that God brought the fish. All right, the fish talked to God. You believe that? I do.

Because God created the very fish. And God said to the whale, "Now fish I want you to follow a certain boat because there in that boat

I have a messenger. I have a real man that isn't moved. And I want
