

you to make him feel it. Because somewhere down the line I'm going to call a storm to come upon it and (Cherokee) And God said to the whale, I want you to be prepared because you're going to eat (Cherokee) because there's going to be a big beast coming on one of these boats here and I want you to grab that thing. (Cherokee) I know which one it is. I want you to go in that direction. But before you arrive there I want you to give this preacher a good ride. Now Jonah rode. After he was thrown over-board in the belly of the fish. How many of you have ever ridden what they call this that goes up and down like this. Down in Tulsa somewhere in those parks (not clear) you know what that is. Brother, my daughter and another girl rode one of those somewhere in Tulsa way back there and they would get way up there and all at once they would drop down fast like that. Oh, talk about squealing they did. And they tried to get me to ride. I said "No." But I finally convinced my wife to ride ferris wheel. Here's what, Jonah said "The weeds in the belly of the fish were wrapped around my head." He was in an awful shape wasn't he? Jonah thought he was going to die right there. Some of them thought he was already dead. So he cried for God. God was giving him a taste of hell. That fish carried him to the bottom of the sea. He said I went down to the bottom of the mountains here with the hard wood of the people yet has Thou brought up my life from there. Oh Lord my God Jonah said. After wild experience like that (Cherokee) In the newspaper we seen where they were bringing a big fish, a whale, so that the people could see the size the enormous size of it. That thing was high as this ceiling. And it took two railroad flat cars to carry it. (Cherokee words)--17 foot pole but they
