

Chastain - after Professor Robinson - his school over there went dead. See, they sent a lot of the Indian children - they took the most of the Indian children and put 'em in Coweta Mission and the Eufaula Mission, you know, down there - and he could get this teacher's certificate - he got a lot of this school books and everything from that Professor Robinson's school over there to come to his -

(That Coweta Mission - where was it located?)

Well, it's on the highway right out this way from - well, it is right agin' # 51. I don't know what name it goes by now, but it's - aw, the people lives there now - they turned it into a - they tore the old buildings all down and everything, and they just have a house and barns there now. Oh, back in - I'd say in - as far back as I can remember. But it was still goin' in 1901 and 1902 and 3 along up in there. But finally, they got those big publick schools there, you know - it was mostly for the Indians.

(I had never heard about that one.)

Yeah. It was the old Coweta Mission.

(They boarded the - )

Boarded the children right there, same as old Professor Robinson did when he had the Indian children here. It was all -

(It was the old Tallahassee Mission.)

Yes, the old Tallahassee Mission.

(Where was it located?)

It's on the # B and it's right over that on # B. It split the old buildings and all right in two.

(How big a place was it?)

Oh, it was a big place. Big school

(When was it in existence?)

Oh, I guess it was there before the Civil War and after the Civil War. My
