

All of them make the clan.

(That would be sorta like a family, that band.)

Mrs. Harper: They used to live in camps like, you know. Grandpa said they used to live out at Black Dog Camp. They used to all live out there. You know, where Lottie's house is now out there. Well, you know where Mrs. McCarthy's place is?

(Yeah.)

Well, just across the creek back that way just about half a mile, is Black Dog Camp. Grandma said they used to all live there. Then they had Abbotts Camp right there below the dam. That used to be Abbotts Camp. There used to be all houses there. Marie Maker used to have a house there. Leroy Logan and his mother and dad they had a house there. John Abbott had a house there, and Shunkamolahs.

(Where Frances lives now?)

Uh-huh, right there. That meeting house is there yet, you know, where (not clear)--

Mr. Harper: Used to be about a dozen houses along in there.

Mrs. Harper: Used to be a whole camp there. They all lived there together. I mean, used to and that was called Abbotts Camp. They all lived there. The Abbotts, the Shunkamolahs.

Unidentified Voice: Perhaps this is Mrs. Harper's sister, Rose Jake. I remember that. I remember being out there. Marie Maker had a bid house there.

(Would they have something like summer houses?)

Mrs. Harper: Yeah, Well, Shunkamolah's house was sorta like a little frame house. A little square house. I can't remember--

Mr. Harper: There's about four or five little houses.

(About how many families would be in there?)