

June 6, 1968.

Index Side #2, First part.

Recording time: 18 minutes

Informant: Maude Rider Brown, 90-year-old Cherokee of Chelsea Community, Rogers County, Oklahoma.

Subject: Attended Chelsea Academy, Cherokee Female Seminary, and country schools in Rogers County.
Her father, Rufus Rider, was an Indian immigrant from Georgia, and also served on the Cherokee Nation council in Indian Territory.
Payment made to early settlers about 1906.
Spoken Indian language from 1880 in early day schools.
Her land allotment in Coe-we-s-scoo-wees District.
Early day travel.
Married a Chickasaw Indian and lived in Chickasaw Nation.
Experiences in early day Indian Territory.