

T-300

LOUISE GRAY RED CORN, OSAGE

INTERVIEWED BY: KATHERINE RED CORN

INTERVIEW DATE: AUGUST 25, 1968

TRANSCRIBED BY: MONETTE COOMBS

GENERAL SUBJECT: LIFE HISTORY MATERIALS; RIBBON WORK; SCHOOLS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

SELF IDENTIFICATION

PREPARATION OF MANY FOODS USED IN EARLY DAYS

LIFE AT THE ST. LOUIS CONVENT WAS HAPPY TIMES

FATHER TOOK THE FAMILY WITH HIM ON HORSE RACE

CIRCUITS IN SUMMER

SUMMER TRIPS TO COLORADO SPRINGS

SHE TELLS ABOUT EACH MEMBER OF HER FAMILY OF CHILDREN

MRS. RED CORN DOES BEAUTIFUL SEWING AND RIBBON WORK -

EXPERIENCES IN LEARNING

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Louise Gray Red Corn is 58 years of age. She is a full blood Osage and lives in what is called the Osage Indian Village in Pawhuska, Oklahoma, where she has lived all of her life. She has five children one daughter Katherine (interviewer) and four sons. She attended the Indian Camp school, Johnson School and St. Louis School for girls and graduated from Nelagany High School. Louise is one of the few Osages who does Osage ribbon work. She married Harold Red Corn in 1932.