

have to pay it back. Well what do they do with all the rest of the money when it was paid up so much a head. (not clear) --while they was workin' on it. Where does it all go to?

(It didn't fly away.)

And we shore didn't get it.

(Well we could sure use some of it.)

They sure want their pay.. And they don't care whether we get any service from that office or not.

(Well I know one thing--)

As long as they are drawin' their pay, that's all they want.

(Yeah. There's a lot of people that need some help.)

Sure are.

Yeah. There's one settin' right here now. They have to work for lots of things around here and you know I'm not able to do anything. I've got rheumatism so bad, I can't hardly get around sometimes. Well I can't hardly wear any shoes hardly. It seems to me they ought to spend more money right here in their own back yard stead of spendin' it way off, sendin' it up to the moon and everything else.

(Well, we could appreciate it a whole lot more. Yes, there's people that I know of that need help right today.)

They got it down to just as cheap as they can get by with too because even these boys around here that wasn't even plumbers told me these guys that worked on these plumbers jobs, do some of the sorriest jobs that ever was done. I guess they got them just because they could do it cheaper.

(Just cheaper. Well, then that's just what they got were the cheap jobs.

When you pay cheap money and you get cheap jobs.)

I know I couldn't get whatever switch it was to fix our well. It wouldn't
