

too many left. You don't never see them anymore.

(No, I haven't seen any of them in years. Now those little black birds.

Are there many of those left?)

Oh, yes. There's a lot of them. We have killed lots of black birds.

They are good eating.

(Oh, yes. They are good eating. And I guess there are a lot of black birds now.)

Yes, and over across the river there, we seen a bunch of black birds and there was a white one among them. Did you ever see one?

(A white black bird? No. I have never seen one.)

Yeah, a white black bird.

(Well, that's unusual. I never did see one.)

Since then I have seen several of 'em. Some of them have a yellow breast and some have red wings. They are pretty scarce up here anymore.

EARLY DAY LIGHTING AND HEATING IN THE HOME

(Some of the old timers are gone now, and the old schools are gone. Old schools are gone.)

Yeah, everything's modern now. They got rid of the old schoolhouse.

(They didn't use to have electricity either did they?)

No, didn't have anything. They got telephone finally. They have three or four lines from Vinita. They got a big telephone line now.

(Yeah. They used to use a coal oil lamp long time ago.)

Yeah. Everybody used them.

(And wood stoves.)

Yeah..
