

(Yeah, long time ago people used to trap fur animals. Muskrats. And coons.)

Yeah.

(Used to be muskrats around here, and mink, a long time ago, and plenty of coon.)

Yes. And some people think muskrat is good eatin'. I don't care much about 'er.

(Yeah, I haven't seen a muskrat in a long time.)

You have to cook them just right. Put that fork through and turn it.

COODY'S BLUFF

(I wonder how Coody's Bluff got its name?)

I don't know how it got it.

(Was there some fellow start a store there? You know there use to be a store there a long time.)

Some fellow started a store there by name of Coody, called that Coody's Bluff. That's how it started, I think.

(Sentence not clear).

RODEO AT ALLUWE

(That was on the Verdigris River there wasn't it? There was Alluwe on the river too?)

Yeah. Right on down south down the river. Yeah.

(That was an old town, settlement too wasn't it, Alluwe?)

Yeah. That's old, long time ago.

(Was that an Indian name? I wonder what it means?)

Yeah that's Indian name. I don't know what it means. Someone said it
