

said, "Them people sure felt sorry for you."

(Laughter.)

(Yeah. That was quite an experience)

(Laughter) Boy, they's no way a getin out of that.

(No sir)

Dad-blame, unless you jest catch a feller when he opens that door.

Why if you stick your foot in there, they'd cut your foot off.

The way its made just to do that. Yeah.

BIG SAW MILL - RAISING CATTLE

(Was there lots of timber up and down this Spavinaw Valley at one time?)

Yeah.

(Its all been cut out then)

Shoot -- that big mill, it'us the biggest mill that'us ever in the country was down here at Kenwood y'know. Did you ever visit that?

(No I have never seen that one.)

Had a big boiler. It ran the sawdust and everything right against the boiler. It stacked its own lumber and everyhting. Down there a sortin it and push a button and git some good stuff. That sawmill bought lumber, plumb around from Disney and back in there. They bought all the timber they could get. They cut all of it. Excuse me. I want to get a map.

(All right. Those cows and cattle in those early days were wild.

Well you can remember that.)

Yeah. Heck yeah. Uncle Andy had a bunch of stock, bought eighty head, that run in here.. When he started in they's bout oh they'us six or eight. Few old cows, jest buy 'em for a little of nothin,
