

done September 25, 1905 at 7:00 P.M. in that evenin and I was the secretary for the congregation, Sincerely yours, Joseph Cummins.

This day September 10, 1905. They came y'know just to investigate y'know to see how would it be y'know. Then they extended in two weeks to come back and organize it. That was done. See they first came September 10 and in two weeks come back, September 25, 1905 and I was four days old then. And they, September 10, I still wasn't born yet, but second time they came, I was four days old.

(Who was the first Minister.)

When they organize? That wuz Joseph Cummins, my father.

(Your father.)

See they point him for Pastor, after they organize.

(And what kind of building did they have)

Well they just had a lumber buildin' a lot like down here, y'know.

It was pretty good size buildin'. They didn't own the land where they built the Church House. And it burnt down. I forgot just what year it was it burnt down, they had a singin' at night y'know, Saturday night, me and my sister, we'us come to Sunday School you know when we came round the holler there was nothin but fire there.

(Burned in 1913. Then they built a new Church here then?)

Well, yeah, about a year or two after that. You know they had a place over there, like we got down here, eatin' place y'know.

Had a long shack y'know, so they'us a having Church over there till they all agreed to buy a piece of land somewhere, and build a Church house. Well they put up two places so they could hold on it. One place right up the creek here and this down here. Bout
