

my wife if its all right for him to extend it to two months over there. And he said that he would extend that two months then whenever he gets out, he be out free. That's what he said. Then I wrote to 'Im and jest told him jest do whatever was right for him. I don't know, he never did tell us if he did extend it or not. He could don't extend it, he could come back long about February. And if he extended he would be back long 'bout May. If he don't extend it, after he comes back, he have a thirty day furlough then he go back because he wouldn't have to cost that.

(Did you have lots of game in these hills?)
