

in the things we undertake to do this day. We ask all these things in Thou Name's Sake. Amen.

Let us again bow our heads for moment in silent prayer for these whom we have just mentioned a moment or so ago. Let us just bow our heads. Amen. (Silence for about one minute.) All right, Frankie. (Song for 15 minutes.) We are bringing a chair out here--(Another song starts and last for about 10 minutes. Background conversation for about 3 minutes that I was not able to hear.) We have a rather long list of specials here this afternoon. I have doubled some of them and I made triple and I made in to four groups where we can run this special off. It is now 4 o'clock, almost. The first special that I like to recognize this afternoon. Nobody wants to be first. Everybody wants to be last and everybody wanted to be towards the last, so I just took it upon myself that I place you. So the first special that we gonna have this afternoon is Thurman White. Thurman White. Is Thurman White around? (Song for about 5 minutes)
