(Yes sir)

Kansas City to the Gulf..

(When was this put in here. Built?)

1895.

(1895) (Well that was a big help for this part of the country too.)

Yeah.

(That was built during the days they didn't have any iron machinery.

I guess it was all horse teams and mules.)

Yeah. Yeah. (Sentence not clear) Fort Smith.

(Yes sir)

(Words not clear)

(I've heard of Flint courthouse. Where is that Mr. Grant?)

Well Flint Courthouse is not there anymore. That's about five miles south of here. West of this highway, 69 highway. Delaware Courthouse, as you come south of Grove there, about five or six miles.

And over west about two. Two or three miles.

(Yes sir)

Delaware Courthouse was up there. Flint Courthouse was down here south of Stilwell. Saline District was up near Grove Prairie.

Saline courthouse was down south of that, Locust Grove and Claremore, Locust Grove toward Tulsa.

(Yes sir)

And uh- Sequoyah Courthouse served the 9th District and was about two miles south of the highway near Sallisaw.

(Uh-huh)

You get up there (not clear) somewhere.

(Let's see Goingsnake Courthouse where was it--had been?)
