

In there west of White Oak.

(Yeah. Is that what they call Shawnee Hills?)

I think so.

NAMES OF SOME OF THE PEOPLE LIVING IN THAT AREA

(Uh-huh. Uh--who was some of those Indians up in there. Do you remember?)

There was--. Let's see I had it on my mind but I forgot. Randy Carpenter.

(Randy Carpenter.)

Yes he's pretty smart old Indian.

(Is he still living?)

Yeah.

(Where does he live now?)

I couldn't tell you. Well he lives up there in Shawnee Hills.

(Uh-huh. And let's see was any of them named Brown?)

Not that I know of. Used to be some Browns at Alluwe.

(And now Calvin Dick's folks they were Shawnee. Did they live up in there too?)

I guess they did. I didn't know them up in there. I didn't go up in that country much.

(Uh-huh)

But old Randy he can tell you all about it.

(Uh--where did your folks first settle when they came to this country? Was that around Ketchum or did they settle up here?)

No they settled up here. My pa did. He worked for a man by the name of Charlie Mule. At Alluwe.

(Uh-huh)

My mother was working for him. And that's how come they got married.

EARLY DAY TRADING AT STORES -- EGGS AND FRUITS AND VEGETABLES FOR NEEDED COMMODITIES

(Well. What was those early stores like? Did they carry just about everything?)
