

(Well, Dog Town School. Named after the blacksmith's dogs, huh.)

Yeah.

(Well it was just an old frame building up there?)

Yeah.

(Uh-huh. Who was the teacher then? Do you remember?)

Well I believe, I remember the first teacher Houston Justice.

(Houston Justice.)

Then I remember another teacher's name was Janie Ross.

(Janie Ross)

Uh-huh.

(Yes sir that was way back yonder.)

Yes it was.

THERE HAVE BEEN MANY CHANGES SINCE BOYHOOD

(Uh-huh. Well you've seen a lot of changes in your time. Haven't you?)

Yeah I have.

~~(Uh-huh)~~

Yeah if I live through this month, I'll be seventy years old.

(Seventy years old.)

I have some sisters living old than I am. They might be able to give you some information.

(Yeah. Where do they live?)

They live here in town.

COAL MINING AND WHITE HILL COMMUNITY

(When did they start the coal mining in this country.)

Well ever since I can remember.

(Ever since you can remember)

But they had little strippits that some of I know they put through the coal.
