

run that. It's east of Grove about three miles--east--where the railroad used to go by.

(Well, Grove wasn't much of a town in the early day, was it?)

No, no, Grove wasn't anything. No.

(Uh-huh)

You ever read in the Grove Sun when Claude Hanley writes about these old days and old times?

(Uh-hum. Yeah.)

And Claude was raised there at Miami, you know and that's why I'm (word not clear) of that.

(Uh-huh)

I notice his articles he writes in the paper--pretty good too. They sold good too.

(Yeah)

Uh-huh)

Yeah. Sold lot of 'em.

LOCATION OF SENECA TRIBE - PETERS PRAIRIE AND COWSKIN PRAIRIE

(uh--Peters Prairie covers a big district up there.)

Yeah. It's two mile and a half west of--south of here.

(Uh-huh)

It's a big prairie there.

(Uh--now, north of you, north of Grove, is that where the Seneca Indians uh--)

Yeah.

(--Live up in there--Cayuga?)

Yeah. Cayuga. Yeah see the line, the Cherokee line runs right this side, right on the north side of Cowskin Prairie.

(Yes, sir.)

This way you know. And it went I think fifty miles this way and two hundred mile
