

NAMES OF OTHER INDIVIDUALS

(Uh-huh. Now let's see this is the order of Redmen of the Buffington Tribe. That was here around Vinita.)

Yeah. That is right.

(Yeah, Vinita Indian territory.)

Now the first name on there. I knew him quite well. Amos Snake. And I knew Sam Ridenour, here at the top. And I knew Jess Thomas. And there were some more.

(Well let's see. Eric Sullivan. Issac Greenfeather.)

I knew Issac Greenfeather, he lived in our neighborhood.

(Ross Mode.)

I didn't know Ross Mode.

(Frank DeShain.)

There's about four in there that I knew. Personally.

(Yeah. L.T.Couch. Indian society, about what year would that have been?)

Well let me see if I can go back to that. (Not clear.)

(1895)

Yes, that's just -- just a guess now.

(Uh-huh).

I would say someplace along that time.

(All the Indians of that day, they dressed uh--)

Oh just half way.

(Partly whiteman's dress and partly Indian. And some of them have full Indian--)

Now let me see--

ESTABLISHMENT OF BOUNDARY LINES OF TOWN OF VINITA

(Let's see that was the Buffington Tribe; number twenty-two. Imperial Order of Redmen. Vinita Indian territory. About 1895.)
