

(In 1895 the courthouse for the Coo-wee-scoo-wee District is shown, let's see at Claremore. The Delaware District Courthouse was on Honey Creek.)

No, not Vinita. Oh I'm sorry. I shouldn't have said that.

(Saline District Courthouse was near Grove.)

Uh-huh.

(Goingsnake Courthouse for that District was just in West of Alberty Prairie.)

Uh-huh.

(Near, Christie Creek. Fling District Courthouse was at the head of big Sallisaw Creek.)

Uh-huh.

(For Sequoyah District their courthouse was at the head of Skin Bayou Creek.)

And northeast of Bluff--B-l-u-f-f.

(The courthouee for the Illinois District is shown being located about ten miles straight east of the present town of Braggs. On the bank of Green Leaf Creek. The courthouse for the Canadian District is shown as being immediately down stream from the Webber Falls formation on the Arkansas River. And on the west bank.)

TOWN OF OKOEE

(Now in the old days of Craig County. There was a town of Okoe.)

That's right.

(An Indian town that is no longer there. What history do you have on it?

As to where it was. And how big it was.)

Second voice: I can tell you that--yes. Let me see if it's here on the map.

Now I'll have to do a little research to be sure about that town. Now here's Vinita and section eleven. Now if I want to go to Okoe. (At this point interview is inaudible. Fault in tape.) North from each corner of section thirty-one, township twenty-four, range twenty-one east.
