

(Uh-huh. Do you remember anything about that little community of Dennis?)

Ben: Yeah, that's way back down the road here, north, about three quarters.

What they call the old Dennis place. Old graves there. They tore it up.

(Well did they have a--?)

Ben: (not clear)--some of the land down in there.

(Yeah.)

Ben: All up back over here. Some of it.

(Well was there a post office there too at one time?)

Ben: Yeah, they had a post office there a long time.

(Well.)

Ben: That's been took out--all--ever since the dam come in.

(Yeah.)

Ben: They took them out. That's down there (not clear).

MR. WOODS WAS BORN AND RAISED IN THIS COMMUNITY AND HAS SEEN MANY CHANGES

(Were you born here, Mr. Woods?)

Ben: I was born back here few miles north. About two and half or three miles, close to Wooded Hollow over on Grand River. Born and raised..

(Well you've seen a lot of changes in your time, haven't you?)

Ben: Yeah, I sure have.

(What is the biggest change you've seen come to this country?)

Ben: Well, I don't know. It seems like this here--in the last 25 years, it's picked up more--more land clearing, you know.

(Yeah.)

Ben: Stuff like that. I had to move up here under the dam from there. I bought this place here. Sure changed a lot since I--

(I guess it has. Well you've got roads now. You didn't have roads then.)

Ben: Yeah. We do have good roads you know.

(Yeah. What did the folks do for roads in those early days?)
