

But I wasn't too big when he quit.

(Uh-huh)

He quit going to these places. And he got with the Christian people. Become a Christian.

(Uh-huh)

And a year later. Two or three years later. He was a preacher.

(Yeah)

And later on. He was ordained as a minister. So that's when he passed on.

(What was your daddy's first name?)

John.

(John.)

John Spade.

(Yeah. You've seen a lot of changss in your time too. In this country.)

CONCERNING MEMBERS OF FAMILY

Yeah. I was born in 1905.

(Uh-huh. 1905.)

Yeah. I will be sixty-four. I think this next February. February. My mother was there I think from the "Trail of Tears." Many years back. I think her grandma, yes, her grandma was on the Trail of Tears.

(Uh-huh)

And her grandma raised children after they left, I just don't know where.

(Yeah)

And she had to be in one of these. My mother.

(She was Indian doctor.)

And then so my mother came along. Then after they had settled somewhere. And her mother passed away. Well I guess she was just born.
