

Mr. Thomas: Yeah.

Remember he had another name. (Not clear) his name was (name not clear).
His pictures up there. Down there where all our pictures are, down there at the print shop.

(Uh-huh)

Mr. Thomas: (sentence not clear).

(Yeah)

HEAD BAKER WAS A BOXER - INCIDENT

The head baker there when I was there was a school boy. He wasn't no boy.
He was thirty-two years old. He was a boxer, too up there. He was best man, boy he was a man. He was the best man there with gloves.

(Hum)

But I had to draw with him. Have to draw ten rounds.

(Yeah)

I just a kid you know. - I told him he could have knock me. He said I fought him a good round. I knew when I flat step you know. The way the man hit.
But I never would let him hit me. He said I might if I ever caught up with
you. (Laughter)

Mr. Thomas: You did a lot of dancing then. (Laughter)

I had to stay away from him. I fought him a draw and they had to give two pair of pants to the winner. And they give us a pair a piece.

STYLES FOR BOYS IN EARLY DAYS

They used to wear them blue pegged pants.

(Yeah)

Tight around them pegs you know.

(Uh-huh)

Them the style.
