

(Yeah that was big style.)

Mr. Thomas: They had bell bottoms then didn't they.

(Yeah, then went to bell bottoms.)

Went to bell bottoms. I know.

(Some of them really went to extremes, especially those Sioux boys.)

Mr. Thomas: They put red in there (not clear).

(Yeah)

Mr. Thomas: Remember I used to wear them red ties you know. All got, wearing red tie.

(Yeah)

RECALLS SEVERAL MATRONS AND TEACHERS

Miss (Name not clear) there you know.

Mr. Thomas: Yeah he's been there for thirty years.

(Yeah he's been there long time.)

I was a home one boy.

(Yeah you were in the big boys building.)

Yeah

(I guess that big girls matron, Lizzie McCormick--)

Yeah

(Was she there?)

Yeah Miss McCormick.

(Well she was there when I left.)

Mr. Thomas: She married and went to Ponca City.

(Well)

Mr. Thomas: And one of the girls she raised was her neighbor at Ponca City.

And boy they got along good.

(That's good. Boy them girls used to give her a rough time. And my sister
