

(Yeah)

At the bottom of the hill.

(Uh-huh)

Didn't go to school over there very long.

(Yeah)

Then we moved up here. And we went to school (not clear) here. (not clear).

(Well did they have school here at Smith Chapel too?)

Well they used to. But then all went to Locust.

(All went to Locust. Where was your church house up there?)

Church up there now.

(You had church there then.)

Yeah. Yeah. Not in that school house. They built another one right close to there.

(Yeah)

Yeah one church for the white people. And Indian church out here on the creek.

(Yeah.)

Call it Little Rock.

(Uh-huh)

That's what I think people call it.

(Yeah)

And uh--Little Rock was like a home. Lots Indians there. There was (name not clear) There was some Balleus.

(Yeah)

Not many around now. But seem like they don't hold them anymore like they used to.

(Uh-huh. Course you'd had good Indian preachers early day.

What was that again?
