

Well its old place too.

(Yeah)

Uh-huh Johnson Prairie about three mile this side of Moody.

(Uh-huh)

And Terisita still back this a way.

(Yeah. I know they have meetings down there at Johnson Prairie Indian Church.)

Yeah they have meeting down there. Have mission down there too.

(There used to be big grassland down Johnson Prairie at one time.)

Yeah oh grassland through there. Its all under pasture now.

(Yh-huh)

Its all under pasture.

(Yeah)

FARM LAND - FARM PRODUCTS

Farms, put farms.

(Yeah. Well what did they grow here? Just corn, corn mostly.)

Around in here?

(Mostly)

I used to grow cotton.

(Grow cotton)

Yeah. Grow cane, corn, like that. They didn't make no pasture like they do now. Ain's no pasture. All the pasture they got, you know was out in the woods.

OPEN RANGE FOR LIVE STOCK - CATTLE AND WILD HOGS

(The cows and hogs they just run out in the woods.)

Yeah. Yeah they run out in the woods. Run out in the woods had wild hogs out in there.

(Well)

Yeah lot of hogs. One time this whole country here, wasn't no house here, wasn't no house here, wasn't no house in that corner right there.
