

FAMILY

(I guess so. What was your father's name?)

Who?

(Your daddy.)

Charley

(Charley).

Uh-huh.

(Uh-huh.)

Boy he wasn't much of a daddy.

(Now where did he come from?)

He come from. I don't know where he come from.

(Yeah)

Sure don't. No I don't know where he come from. I don't know whether he come from Georgia or where.

(And your mother; she come from Georgia?)

No, no my mother's daddy and my grandfather.

(Yes)

My grandfather, I mean his daddy he's the one come down here.

(Yes. And was his name Hughes too.)

No, his name was Smith.

(Smith)

Uh-huh. That was my mother's--

(Yes)

Daddy was a Hughes.

(Yes. Do you remember seeing him when he was living?)

Who's that?

(Your grandfather)

Oh yeah. He's dead. He used to live out there close to where we lived.
