

Creek that ran by uh--Mustang.

(Yeah. Used to be little town at one time.)

Used to be store down there.

(Yeah. They used to have Indians meetings down there.)

Yes. When I first lived down there Okeee started it. It was down there on the prairie west of Okeee over there about a mile.

(Uh-huh)

In that prairie. And they had a post office there, had a store, blacksmith shop. Christenberry he come from Whiteoak down there he bought them out. He moved down there right across the creek where the bridge is.

(Uh-huh)

Christenberry killed a nigger down there. Broke in the store you know, shot him.

(Well)

A BAD WINTER - SLEET ON GROUND THIRTY DAYS

That was a long time ago. That time we had sleet so long.

(Yeah)

You remember we had sleet on the ground for about a month.

(Uh-huh)

And we had to shoe our horses (not clear).

(Yeah)

That's how they killed all them deer down in them hills, you know side of them hills.

(Uh-huh)

My brother killed one deer one time just hit him (not clear).

(Well)

You know they tried to climb they slide back down.

(Yeah, that was a bad winter.)
