

(Arcadia. Uh-huh. (Inaudible) Cavalier School. That was the first one. The Cavaliers were a big family at one time there, weren't they?)

Oh yes.

(Uh-huh.)

(Inaudible) Cavalier and--

(Well, I guess they established that--started that Cavalier Cemetery, too. Down there. This was all Indian country here when you were small.

Where did they have their meetings? Down at Balleu or--)

Balleu and near Little Rock.

(Yeah, up at Little Rock.)

They still do.

(Yeah.)

And then they had another place there that no one (inaudible). Right off the creek. Right up the creek.

(Oh, up at Snake Creek?)

Yeah.

(Snake Creek. Yeah.)

And that's where I'm a member of.

(Uh-huh.)

(Inaudible) They moved it back over there.

FIRST STORE IN LOCUST GROVE - FIRST RAILROAD

(And you say the first store here in Locust Grove was started by Wilkinson?)

I think so.

(Uh-huh.)

(Sentence not clear.)

(Yes.)

Came right up here.

(What railroad was that that came through here?)
