

(Uh-huh.)

He'd stay and watch for fire.

(Well.)

(Mrs. Welch's sentence inaudible.)

(Yeah.)

I stayed down in the car.

(Uh-huh.)

Sometimes we'd have to call out (inaudible).

(Yeah.)

(Sentence not clear.)

(Yeah. Very similar to what they do now.)

(Mrs. Welch's words not clear.)

(Always met in a schoolhouse, I guess. Had your program.)

We (inaudible).

(Yeah. Just a Christmas tree at the church or schoolhouse.)

(Mrs. Welch's reply not clear.)

(Yeah, in those old days they didn't have Christmas trees in homes. They all looked forward to it, though.)

Yes, we did.

(And those people had fireplaces, then. So Santa Claus could come down the chimney.)

REMEMBERS FIRST CAR SHE EVER SAW

I remember the first car I ever saw.

(Where was it?)

Over here at Grove. Our neighbor bought one. I went over there to see. Then it come that storm at Peggs. And we got that man to take us out there in his car.

(Yeah.)

And we paid him eight dollars to take us to Peggs.
