

(1898. ((laughter)) Same was married to Black - Black Dog's daughter. Was he not?)

I believe so, yes.

(And, ah--)

Yes. That's right.

VISITING AND SINGING WAS MOST PLEASURE

[Now, ah, in those early days, it's kinda interesting to know, that, how did they - in the evening time, after everything was done, and you know you sitting around, how did you entertain yourself?)

You mean ourselves?

(Yeah, how did you, ah, did you visit mostly, or, in the evenings after supper--?)

You mean ourselves?

(Yeah, yourselves.)

Well, we just - we were great hand to have singing, of evenings. We'd get out song book and father 'round, while we was children, is that what you mean?

(Yes that's what I mean.)

Yes. We'd gather 'round and - and we'd sing religious songs. We were - my father and mother was quite religious people, especially Mother. And we would sing song and then we would play, if it was a moonlight night, we children would go out and play outside and all kinds of games.

HUNTING WILD GAME.

(Now back in those days we're speaking of, do you remember how any hunting parties were organized, or anything like that?)

Do you mean among the Indians?

(Yeah.)

Well, no not too much, but I know your dad used to go out hunting a lot with
