

(They had a hard way of going. No money?)

I know it. That's true. (Not clear.)

MONEY SCARCE IN EARLY DAYS

(Yeah they said lots of times they get hungry they go out and catch a snow bird or chipmunk. And roast him.)

Lordy, lordy. (Laughter.) Walt and me caught many a snow bird but I couldn't kill one now. (Laughter.)

(No people done a lot of things in those days that they wouldn't think of doing now.)

Oh lord yes. Well all kids wants to eat now is a few cookies and something they get out of the store, a bottle of pop, or something like that.

(Yeah.)

DRESS MATERIAL AT FIVE CENTS A YARD

When I was raising my kids. I could get a, for my little girls, a dress for fifteen cents.

(Well, my goodness.)

Its the truth. You know we'd make little bloomers of them. To match the dress. Well it was a nickel a yard.

(My goodness, cost a nickel a yard.)

And print. It was a nickel a yard. Oh we couldn't have made it if it'd been like now. They wore -- they would had no clothes to wear then if like they are now.

HIGH BOTTON SHOES - RIDE SIDE SADDLE

(Was that back in the days of the high botton shoes?)

Yes.

(Yeah. Shoes buttoned up the side.)
