

Yes. It's right over here.

(That's quite a prominent place in the history of -- .)

Fred works over there at night.

(Well.)

Over there at the old Carlisle Place.

(Well that was one of the oldest places in the country. I guess.)

Yeah. Yeah.

(Now where is it from here. Is it on the other side of the river?)

Yeah. On the other side of the Illinois River.

(Well that was the start of the Carlisle family that is scattered through the Cherokee nation.)

Uh-huh.

(Yeah. Let's see that was I bet they also had a stage coach stop there, at one time.)

Yeah. Yeah.

(Yeah, I remember it was such a great big house there.)

Yeah I remember I've heard my momma talk about that.

(And the Carlisle family they owned quite a bit of land around there.)

Yeah, way down there close to the mouth of Illinois River.

(Uh-huh.) (Next sentence not clear.)

(Yeah, just very few families.)

Very few.

WAGON TRAVEL IN EARLY DAYS

(Uh-huh, they're scattered all through these hills. How did you keep in touch with one another?)

Well if we wanted to go see them. We get in a wagon and go see them.

(You didn't have much roads in those days.)
