

of the Hominy Band, or in what capacity did he assume this responsibility?).

Well, I don't know, at that time whether he was a leader of any group or belonged to the Council or what. I don't recall that.

(Did--you don't remember any other Indians doing anything like that at the time?)

No, I don't think I heard anybody else.

MEXICO - TRIP DETAIL

(Getting back to the trip that you and my father took down there at the time, how did--which was later than this trip--but you did not accompany the people mentioned--and on this trip that you went down. How did you go to Mexico?)

We went to Mexico from Old San Antonio, Texas, on train.

(Did you leave your reservation--Osage reservation on the train?)

I think we did.

(Was there a large party? Or what.)

Just the family.

(The Maker family?).

The Maker family.

The Maker family and Mr. Wah-hre-she.

(When you got to San Antonio, you took another train to--whereabouts did you go then?)

I imagine we went to the border line.

(And when you got to the border, were you received by any kind of officials?)

Oh, I believe we went on train from there. From border line into Old Mexico. We went just far as we could go. I just happen to remember right now, that this train--it wasn't train like these 'round here. I noticed we went down the hill, the bridge was out. We went down the hill and course
