

(Who drove those four cars?)

My mother-in-law and her driver had a Cadillac. Her driver drove the car for her. And my husband drove his car. He had the Lincoln touring car. He drove that himself. And I had a Cadillac that I done the driving myself. And we also had a panel truck which contained camping supplies and luggages. (What consisted of your camping equipment? What all did you have in that panel truck?)

Well, we had a campin' outfit, tents and bedclothes and utensils and groceries. Such as that.

WENT THROUGH KANSAS, NEBRASKA, IOWA, AND DAKOTAS

(How were the highways in those days?)

The highways in those days was in fairly conditions.

(So they weren't all paved or--?)

They wasn't all paved. Some were paved and some were graveled.

(Then, you were going to tell when you went up through Kansas.)

Then we left. We went through Kansas and Nebraska.

(Where did you make your first stop?)

Why, Leonard, I don't know. I don't know. I don't remember where the first stop was.

(Well, go ahead. You went through Nebraska. You surely must have stopped in Nebraska, I guess.)

No, I remember--

(Just tell me. You remember yourself.)

I remember we were in some town. I don't recall the name of the town, but we camped--we stopped there. We thought it was getting time to stop before it got too late. We stopped at this place where they were having circus as I remember. And we stopped there close by. We had our campin' outfit, so we all--the men got things ready and we camped there overnight. The next
