

and here to tell you about it is my mother. Tell the remaining of this one. How we thought we was going to--)

I don't have to tell my name do I? Well, at this trip another time we had went to Colorado Springs. From there, we met Mr. Lees, from Council Bluff, Iowa, was there at that time and had this--he had interest in selling this park which was called Juamillo Park overlies on Colorado and New Mexico-- (Border.)

Border.

(But the edge of it was right on the Colorado border.)

Well, this park is--we went over and looked at it and it seems as though he was wantin' to sell it to the Osages which would have been ideal for Osages to take their summer--summer resort. As it was, lot of 'em went over there which I was one of them. And they was so many of us there--there wasn't no roads through there where we was wantin' to locate. They had been a huge buildin' there and other tenant house which was some of 'em, six, seven room houses. There was quite a few of them was there and as we went on, why, we had to build bridge before we got to that place. I don't know how they got there--what became of the road that they went by. But all of the cars, there musta been 'bout ten or twelve cars that was--well, all stopped and the men folks--we all--they all had to go chop two big huge trees. Then, they put pines 'cross the huge poles for the cars to go over. And when we got there, why, this huge place, it had about, oh--I guess, it was like a hotel. They had about 33 or 40 rooms. Then, they had in the--they had two stories. The street floor had lobby and then dinin' room and the kitchen and the other lobby as a dance floor, ballroom, you would call it. And we stayed there in some of them rooms and looked the place over. Later, some of the Osages came back to Colorado Springs. And we stayed there. We stayed in one of them tenant houses, which
