

Didn't you know that, Jess?

Jess: "Yes. I never saw--I've never seen one of those shoes on, but I've seen those shoes. But I've heard 'em talk about it."

(Yeah. I tell you--I wonder how old these are.)

I don't know how old they are.

(Why, they used oxen in this country?)

Yes, they used oxen in this country.

Jess: "Yeah, my uncle. I've heard him talk about driving oxen."

(Well.)

Yeah, I seen one of them back of the old schoolhouse down yonder.

Jess: "They said that it get close to--Chris and then they said then they just run over anything. Just--pull off in a creek.

Maybe turn your wagon over." (Laughter.)

(Well. These are really interesting keepsakes there. I've never seen anything like that.)

Jess: "(Inaudible) team of horses or mules. They just a lot stouter, you know."

(Yeah.)

Jess: "Yeah. I've heard my uncle talk about (inaudible). You know."

(Yeah.)

Jess: "They didn't use any reins, you know. They just needed to whip them."

(Yeah, they guided them.)

Jess: "They guided them. Had a yoke, you know."

(Yeah.)

Jess: "To pull by."
