

INDIAN CHURCH

(Yes, uh-huh. Well then, did the Indians also have a church here at Wauhilla or--)

Uh--we had a Methodist Church down there. But Indians never came.

Most of them had Indian--

(Uh-huh.)

Indians lived over across the creek.

(Yes. And the--one Indian, only name he had was Butterfly.)

Uh-huh. Yes. Old Man Butterfly. I've never seen him.

(Well.)

(Inaudible sentence.)

(They had Indian preachers in those early days?)

Yeah, uh-huh.

(Well, did they hold their meetings out in the open or did they usually go in some building?)

I imagine they went into the building or out in the open. I don't know what was provided. They didn't tell it to me.

ITEMS SOLD IN STORE - OLD SAUSAGE GRINDER

Now here's an old (inaudible).

((Inaudible) Levi Keys had a store here up until, well let's see, October, 1887?)

No. He had a store (inaudible). I think Papa's aunt had it then.

(Yeah. Well, let's see, at that time Henry Chambers was the Treasurer of the Cherokee Nation.)

The other day water run over in the bathroom there. I had my suitcase sitting in there in the closet. They belong in the closet.
