

And moccasins, feet all the time had exercise. Now then you cram down in your shoe.

(That's right.)

And they don't get exercise.

(No, they don't.)

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

(Since this is Christmas season. What did the folks do on--during Christmas back in your young days?)

We had a Christmas tree down there at the old schoolhouse. But there's very little on it. They didn't have the money, you know, to buy things.

(Yeah.)

They had a sack of candy on. Little sack of candies. Something like that.

(Yeah.)

People get a little sack of candy. Or something like that.

(How did they decorate their tree?)

They didn't decorate it.

(They didn't decorate. They just meet down at the schoolhouse then and have a little Christmas.)

Uh-huh.

(No little Christmas program?)

Uh-huh. Yes. They have a little Christmas tree down there.

(Yeah.)

(Sentence not clear.)

(Uh-huh. And I guess they would--)

They would, most of their kids get a little sack of candy.

(Yeah. I guess someone would tell about their--a Christmas story?)

Uh-huh, yeah.

(And did they sing Christmas songs, too?)
