

of those communities.)

(Covered a world of farm land. Not only changing the country but changing people's way of living, too.)

Absolutely.

(People have had to move out. Find something else to do or other places to go.)

They've got that ground staked off now. Oh, I guess a fellow could lease it, form them for a pasture. I know there's lots of this pasture down here on the river.

(Uh-huh.)

(Not clear) the road (not clear) cattle guard. Now half the time you go down through there you see hogs and cattle.

MURPHY WAS AN OLD COMMUNITY TOWN - INCIDENT AT WAGON YARD

(Yeah Yonkers is an old place. I've heard of it years ago. And that community of Murphy that, another old place too. Isn't it?)

Yeah. Murphy is an old place. It's still got two or three stores.

(Uh-huh.)

I went down to it not long ago. And I drove in there, and I looked around. Well, I thought, I'll just go on out the other side. Went out the other side, little ways and came back. What I wanted to do, my wife was with me, and one of my nephews and his wife. We just got out and messing around.

(Yes.)

And so when I stopped there why I seen they had a (not clear). So we drove on about a mile or (not clear) east. Little old creek there in (not clear). Just about the time it was begin to get dark. Come up a cloud in the northwest. We decided we'd better get back over to Murphy.

(Uh-huh.)
