

morning one, why the girl said she had to get up at two o'clock, and get his breakfast, and fix his lunch. Had to go to work.

(Hum-m.)

He has to go to work lots of times, at three or four o'clock in the morning.

(Yeah.)

In the morning. Go to work you know. And then he has -- he hardly ever gets off on Saturdays. Makes good money. But it's not that steady. If he was working steady he could earn pretty good.

Molly: One of the folks.

(Some of their folks.)

WARRENS HAVE RAISED SEVERAL ORPHANS BESIDES OWN FAMILY

He was one of their way off relation. You know.

(Yeah.)

You take old (name not clear). He raised I think three bunches of children.

(My goodness.)

They wasn't his grandchildren. And they wasn't his nephew. They were just folks families.

(Yeah, I guess -- .)

And, lord, he had a houseful of his own.

(Yeah. Well that was the only thing that people do in those old days. Was just take orphans and they never thought anything about it. Did they?)

They didn't have no trouble with these children he raised.

(Uh-huh.)

Frank: Well, I'll tell you about. I'll tell you where they were getting a better raising, when get them raised by some else.

(Uh-huh.)

Than they will from their own parents.
