

(You think it was one of Walter Martin's daughter's?)

Who?

(Who is this now?)

Mrs. Mrs. Old Lady Martin--she's Wah-dan-kah's (?) wife--Walter Martin's mother.

(Oh.)

And this is Newahlah's daughter. I think that's the one married Peck, isn't it?

(I don't know.)

Not Peck, but that's them. And then this here picture is--is a family, this group of sisters that were living in Fairfax, long years back. Do I have to tell them this was the one got killed and blowed up?)

(Well, you might just tell there was a special (not clear) of the tragedies of the 1920's.)

Of the Osages.

(Uh-huh.)

This here is sisters that's the tragedy in around the Fairfax area, sometimes back in 20's. Is a family group of sisters. Name Mrs. Smith and--I really don't--I can't recall the other two's name, but that's the picture of them. Them's too young. (no pictures included)

(Yeah. Who were they?)

These are Perry King's children, you know (no picture included). They lived in Fairfax long time ago. You know Miss King. Not so long ago she died..

Well, these are her children. I don't remember their names. And this lady here, her name was--nice looking woman--her name was Jones. I forgot her first name..

(Where did she come from?)

She's from Fairfax--Gray Horse. I was trying to think of her name real fast, but I can't think of her name. I just can't forget her. And here, this is