

lived, her name was Sarah Bettis

(Sarah Bettis)

And her, there was a spring there. It was up there by this courthouse. I believe there was ridge there on up the hill. Course wasn't a very big hill.

(Uh-huh. What kind of building was that courthouse?)

Well it was kind of like, of a church house.

(That's where they had trials and court there?)

Yeah.

(Uh-huh)

You go on out South of Grove, you going towards Jay, you come to a place where they got big salvage yard.

(Yeah.)

That side of the road when you going south. Be on the east side of the road going south.

(Yeah I remember that.)

Just before you start up there, you go off down that little valley like, you start up that graded road, cross road there. And that's where courthouse, back off, back of that field in there.

(Humh. Well now is that the one they call Zena Courthouse?)

No.

(It has another name?)

Seems like they call that Council Hollow.

(Council Hollow)

I'm not positive but seems to me that was it.

(I guess that's all gone now, though, isn't it?)

Oh yeah, yeah.

(Yeah)
