

Yes. They just used that one mission.

(Yes, uh-huh.)

Of course, the other was at Chilocco and all that you know, Anadarko.

(Well, did they have any little country schools out here on this prairie in those early days?)

Oh yes. One of them was right back here on this mountain.

(What did they call it?)

They called it Eureka.

(Eureka)

And oh, there was several of them out here. Now there was a point, now there's one down this route called Greenlake.

(Greenlake?)

Uh-huh. That was another school.

(Well, this must have been kind of unsettled country in here. Houses few and far between.)

It wasn't anybody around here.

(Well, neighbors were kind of scarce there.)

Oh, yes. Scarce I'll say they're scarce. They're scarce right around me now.

(I'll bet.)

They're all way back yonder.

(Yeah, this is pretty wide country up in here.)

They can't get any closer to me 'cause I own this land.

(Yes ma'm)

But all around here around me. But I am going to try to keep 'em out of here as long as I can.

(Yes.)
