CONCERNING FOOD AND NIGHTHAWK GROUP

Mrs. Wolf: Inaudible--static

Little bitty balls are homemade I guess.

(Yes)

Wiley: They made, I don't know how they made, bean and bacon. They (words not clear) They catch it with that.

(Uh-huh. Well)

Mrs. Wolf: And uh--they give uh--they have dinner over there every once in awhile. It would be all wild things. You know squirrel, rabbits, birds and things like that.

(Yeah)

Wiley: Squirrel soup, they going to drink squirrel soup. That's good.

(Going to drink squirrel soup.)

Uh-huh.

(Well that'd be good.)

Mrs. Wolf: I never drink squirrel soup.

Wiley: One time, I was little. I went over there one time where stomp dance was. I told you first time.

Mrs. Wolf: They kinda funny. That dance was I, Goback uh, when Goback would go off on one of his Nighthawk trips, you know he'd go off--

(Uh-huh)

Mrs. Wolf: So Susie, that was his wife, she would have her sister to come down there and stay with her. Her sister would take me along. (At this point conversation is inaudible due to excessive static) Wagon sheet and we'd all, would
