

of Turnbull. And he got rid of all them tombstones and just farmed right over them graves.

(They just farmed over the graveyard. Had no use for them I guess.)

Wiley: You know, (words not clear) house, he used to live.

(Yeah)

Wiley: It's right there where the law was camping when Ned Christie got killed.

(Well) (conversation is inaudible - static on tape)

Wiley: He got shot. When he got out, he just met that sheriff and run around towards where they were camping at, when he got shot. The bullet hit right over here, on back of his head, just a little a bit.

(Well)

Mrs. Wolf: My mama said that he made his get-away and got down there at the spring. And there was two persimmon trees standing there. They said he fell between them two persimmon trees. I don't guess they're still standing there.

SEVERAL MEMBERS OF MRS. WOLF'S FAMILY CAME OVER THE TRAIL OF TEARS

(Well. Who was your mother, Mrs. Wolf?)

Mrs. Wolf: She was a Tidwell.

(Tidwell? Uh-huh. (conversation is inaudible.) She married a man by the name of Battle.

(Uh-huh. But your father was a Holland.)

Mrs. Wolf: Uh-huh. But mama remember a lot of things. (conversation is inaudible Static) Trail of Tears.

(Well, my goodness.)

Mrs. Wolf: You know the (words not clear) up here?

(What was your great-grandfather's name, that came over on Trail of Tears?)

Mrs. Wolf: Tidwell. He used to tell about when they was all coming here on Trail of Tears.
