

Built a little brick store.

(Yeah)

And we went in for ourselves. And something happened there. I think that house sold to a (not clear). And he moved a little lower down in town. You know. It was a big house down there. And he rented it. Went into business. Quite an old fellow Ben was. Hard to get along with.

(Yeah, just get ready to kill him.)

Yeah. That's what I intend to do. (Laughter)

ROADS - FERRY

(What kind of roads did you have?)

Huh?

(What kind of roads did you have when you came up here? Uh- highways, old.)

Just what we make ourselves. (Laughter)

(Just cut across the country, huh?)

Yeah. First time we ever got a road from here to the ferry, we all got after Billy Simms. It was Billy Simms and another man, he was in the oil business.

(Where was that ferry?)

Right straight south on that section line. Right this side of the schoolhouse.

(Uh-huh. Who run that ferry then?)

Well there's been a half a dozen of them.

(Yeah)

The first one was Thompson.

(Thompson.)

Thompson.

(Uh-huh. Did they call it Thompson ferry?)

Yeah.

When they begin to build the dam. Why they decided up here to build a big boat.
