

(Yeah.)

And they lived over there right close to old man Christie's place. Bill Christie's boys--they had a bunch of goats and those boys would ride those goats, you know, and you know how they'd smell when they get up close to a fire.

CERTAIN PEOPLE WHO LIVED IN THIS COMMUNITY AND EDUCATION CONDITIONS

(Willie Jim Sanders, where does he live?)

Oh, let's see, Jim Sanders was his dad.

(Yeah.)

And they lived not too far south and west of Old Caney churchhouse there.

Not very far down there. Let me see, Sam Sanders was Willie's uncle.

(Yeah.)

Jim Sanders brother.

(Then Willie Jim's, his brother was Little--)

Little George.

(Little George and his sister was Isabel. Is that right?)

Florence was the youngest one. Florence and yeah--Hooley, they called her Hooley, Isabel--

(Yeah.)

And then Cass was three.

(There's three of 'em.)

Yeah, Cass, Hooley and Florence. These three girls. And then--

(Cass Christie was one of the prominent Christies there, wasn't she?)

Yeah, yeah. And their brother Jack.

(Jack Christie.)

(What kind of a fellow was Goback Christie?)

Well, he was just a plain Indian. Goback wasn't a mean man. He was just-- had a little shop up there, you know, blacksmith shop. It was his work,
